Comments:

This was first mentor experience and it was very rewarding for me as a mentor. Through listening, providing resources and being available, I saw how much growth came out of our meetings.

Only had 2 contacts with my mentee. 2nd one I had to initiate

Not as fun as F2F - but it was a nice alternative

I think I got SUPER lucky and got like the BEST mentor ever!

Comments:

The monthly check in was helpful to make sure we were still on track based on the goals we set out to achieve.

Weekly

biweekly meeting for the 1st 6 month of program - will continue to monthly check-in.

We met through a mixture of emails and phone calls on an as-needed basis

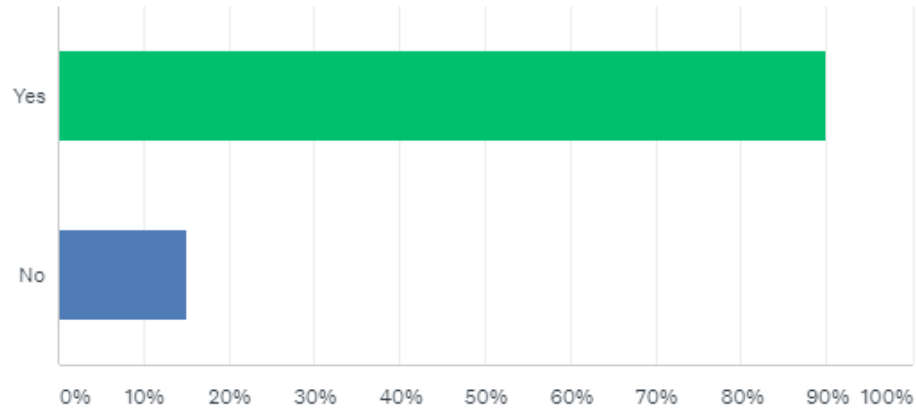

We only met twice and then she went off to prepare for the exam.

Had a few meetings and then he kept not showing up so we stopped meeting all together.

We met only 3-4 times, once a week. Then she canceled at the last minute due to a Covid death of a friend, and we never met again, though I tried. We had been talking about a job search, and she was offered a job.

Do you think you achieved your objectives, with your advisor or mentor?

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Yes	90.00% 18
No	15.00% 3

Comments:

I was able to help with initial career questions but my mentee was able to rationalize a career/job transition on his own

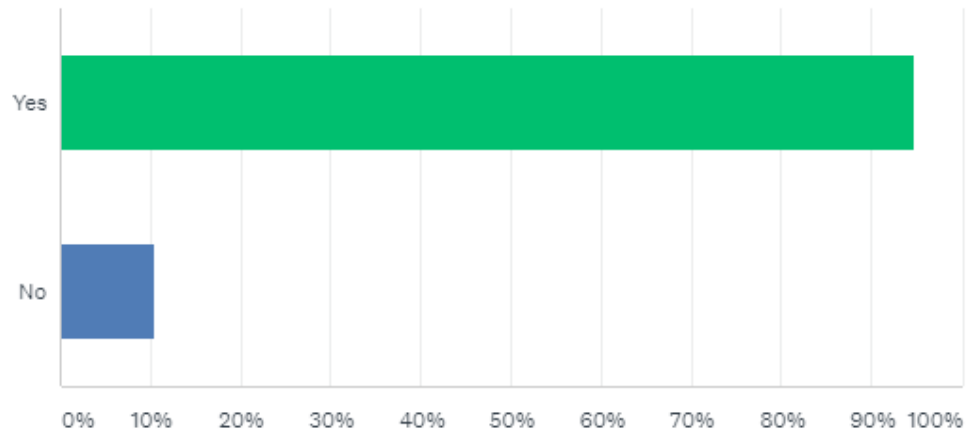

N/A actually - since she was my mentee.

Since I was a mentor, I believe we achieved the objectives for my mentee.

Unfortunately, he kept missing or rescheduling the meetings, so we only met two times I believe. He did apologize a few months later (busy at work).

Need to get solid commitment from participants.

Do you have any additional comments you have not already mentioned, or suggestions for improvement?

Thanks!

The matching to pair us together worked out well based on our background and experiences.

One session during the mentoring sessions to have a Group session and bring in all mentees to discuss about common topics

It provide me guidance on Projects process

I thoroughly enjoyed the experience. I was paired with a great mentee who was eager to learn about Project Management. The program is only as effective as the time you put in. XXXX and I committed to meeting once a week via Zoom, which was very helpful.

The nature of my job changed, and so my portfolio shrank, but the conversations I had with my mentor were great.

Please continue to build this very useful program.

all super fine

Enjoyed it

Overall I was very happy with the program

No

This was an amazing experience!! I had a fantastic mentor, and this program exceeded expectations! I hope PMI LA continues to offer this in the future! Thank you!!

It was extremely helpful having a chance to see my mentor's resume before our first meeting. I hope this process continues.

No

This is a great program to help out fellow project/program managers not only to know about each other's background/experiences but to also inform and learn from one another.

No.

no. I enjoyed the experience and would do again.

Maybe a little more structure which would help both sides. Like have a questionnaire that the mentee fills out and that the mentor receives before the first meeting or something.

nope
